RELENTLESS ADVOCATE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

We have to honour Kader Asmal’s legacy and the work he did by implementing the recommendations of the Asmal report, writes Lawson Naidoo.

The recommendations of the Asmal report have been thwarted in recent years by deeply rooted structures, policies and practices.

The recommendations of the Asmal report have been thwarted in recent years by deeply rooted structures, policies and practices. The recommendations in the Asmal report achieved exactly that. An overhaul is necessary and overdue. Parliament must now act.

Lawson Naidoo is deputy secretary of the Democratic Alliance. This week Kader Asmal Human Rights Lecture is followed by Professor Nadeem Jaffer’s lecture on Tuesday at 5pm on Thinking outside the box: Ayed, Covid-19 and Human Rights... A Few Vistas to Ignore Our Inequalities.
