

SCIENCE ROCKS

A worldwide event that celebrates the important and significant impact that science has in advancing knowledge and improving the quality of lives came to the city yesterday. Organiser of the Durban chapter of the march, Professor Quarraisha Abdool Karim, the UNAids Special Ambassador of Adolescents and HIV, said: "South Africa and, indeed, scientists from Durban, have made notable contributions in all spheres of science that has contributed to scientific discoveries." PICTURE: NQOBILE MBONAMBI/ AFRICAN NEWS AGENCY (ANA)