

THE THIRD UMPIRE

LESETJA KGANYAGO

The central bank governor is adamant that the Bank will not print money to finance government's deficits, not only because that would be illegal but because it is not necessary. Now, would the capture crowd please back off?

SALIM ABDOOL KARIM

The head of SA's ministerial advisory committee on Covid-19 presented a compelling scientific case for the lockdown and long-term social-distancing. Let's hope this approach takes precedence over Bheki Cele's iron fist.

BERNIE SANDERS

The US Democratic Party can thank its lucky stars the US senator will not be its candidate to take on Donald Trump, since he would almost certainly have lost. And if he can get his support base to vote for Joe Biden it will be a double win.
